for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

REMEMBERING JOE

Joseph Michael Kowalski was born on January 17, 1951, and was the pharmacist at Kowalski Drug for thirty-eight years, where he knew every customer’s name and most of their troubles. He kept homing pigeons in the backyard loft he built with his father.

Joe coached youth soccer for twenty seasons and settled more arguments than any referee. He is survived by his wife, Marie; their children, Peter and Anna; four grandchildren; and his brother, Stan.

WITH THANKS

Marie and the family thank you for your prayers, your meals and your many kindnesses. Joe would have been glad of the company.

Oh that I had wings like a dove!
for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you:
not as the world giveth, give I unto you.
Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
