A GOOD HAND

Robert Earl Dawson, Bob to everybody, was born October 5, 1947, and ran cattle on the home place for fifty-one years. He could read weather, horses, and people, in about that order of difficulty.

He was a county fair board member, a volunteer fireman, and the first one to show up with a trailer when a neighbor needed one. Bob is survived by his wife, Patsy, his children, Wade and Jenny, four grandchildren, and a good dog named Blue.

MUCH OBLIGED

Patsy and the family thank you for the food, the help with chores, and for riding out today. Bob would have said it was too much fuss and been pleased all the same.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord,
which made heaven and earth.
